International Conference on Climate Change Resilience
(CCR)
October 5-6 2015

Organized by,
Department of Ecology and
Environmental Sciences,
Pondicherry University

In association with,
Indian- European Multi-level Climate
Governance Research Network
(IECGN)

The University Pondicherry University, established under an Act of the Parliament in the year 1985, has 15 Schools, 37 Departments and 10 Centers offering 175 PG and Research Programmes with over 6000 students. It has 800-acre sprawling Wi-Fi enabled vibrant campus, which is just 12-kms. away from the Puducherry town. It has all the state-of-the-art facilities paving the way for the students to have a student-friendly, result-oriented academic environment with a green ambience.

The Department The Salim Ali School of Ecology and Environmental Sciences was started in 1987 as a special School of Excellence under the Emerging Area Scheme of the University Grants Commission. It was brought under the School of Life Sciences in 2004 as its Department of Ecology and Environmental Sciences, with the objective of providing high quality interdisciplinary education to students in order to deepen their understanding of the ecological and contemporary environmental problems. The faculty is highly specialized and many of them have been endowed with international and national research awards, holding prestigious fellowships/memberships of national/ international academics and societies, and editorial members of international and national journals.

The Indian-European Multi-level Climate Governance Research Network (IECGN) is a joint effort of leading Indian and European academic institutions in the research of climate policy. Our partners are the Environmental Policy Research Center, Freie Universität Berlin; Faculty of Policy and Planning, TERI University, New Delhi; Institute for Environmental Studies, VU University Amsterdam; Global Change Programme, Jadavpur University, Kolkata and Department of Ecology and Environmental Science, Pondicherry University. Our research focuses on the challenges and opportunities in strengthening response to climate change on multiple levels of governance in India and the EU. We wish to provide for a better understanding of climate action emerging from the bottom-up at lower levels of governance such as federal states, cities and municipalities, and the interplay and consistency with climate policy frameworks coming from the national and supranational level.

Important information:

Unpublished research papers (papers/posters) are to be submitted to ICCCR 2015 conference. Submitted papers will be reviewed by the conference technical committee. The abstracts should not exceed 300 words and should be based on the sub-themes or issues related to climate change resilience. The abstracts and full papers are to be sent electronically to icccr2015@gmail.com.

Both the abstract and full paper should be word processed using MS-Word, Times New Roman, font 12 with double line spacing. The abstract should be followed by five key words. The full paper should not be more than 15 pages including the title, main text, tables, Figures, photographs and references. The references should adopt the APA style (<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>).
